The McGill Institute for the Study of <<http://www.mcgill.ca/misc>> Canada (MISC) is pleased to announce that it is now accepting applications for the Eakin Visiting Fellowship in Canadian Studies for the 2010-2011 academic year.

The Fellowship will be awarded to high-level scholars focusing on studies related to Canada. It will be awarded for periods of one or two academic semesters to a scholar with a Ph.D., normally on sabbatical from their own academic institution. The position is open, in terms of rank and discipline, to a dynamic scholar who can enrich the study of Canada with fresh perspectives. The Fellowship may also be awarded to an individual outside of the academic community, whose writing, research or public career are making a significant contribution to intellectual life in Canada.

The incumbent will be expected to teach one undergraduate course in Canadian Studies, deliver the Eakin Lecture (part of the MISC's Distinguished Lecture Series), participate in the activities of the Institute, and pursue exchanges with colleagues at McGill and other institutions.

The Fellowship will offer a stipend of $15,000 per semester, plus $1,500 per semester for research-related expenses.

Applicants are invited to send:

- * Letter of Application
- * Curriculum Vitae
- * Letter of Reference
- * Course Proposal for an Advanced Seminar in Canadian Studies
- * Indication of preference for Fall (2010), Winter (2011)

or for the full 2010-2011 academic year

Please send application materials by December 18, 2009 to
